the Grossman, Sixteen Years Old, is Temporarity Held by Police, but Facts Show Accideutal Shooting.

S. A. Enbody, a clock repairer, was showing a revolver to his young friend, Ike Grossman. With the caution that comes of long experience in the handling of firearms, he first looked at the cylinder to sat-empty, then passed it to Grossman, who, to test its action, "snapped" it several times. There was a loud explosion, and Enbody. pressing his hands to his throat, recled backward and exclaimed, "I am shot!"

He rushed out upon the street, where he store, but before they had gone a block Enbody fell upon the pavement, unable to walk further. He was bleeding internally from a wound in his throat. The police ambiliance being called, Enbody was taken to the station, where in about ten minutes he died.

"The Mystery of Hack No. 4" would be an appropriate title for a story, the incidents of which occurred Tuesday afternoo and evening and in which figured Fred Trutleman, hack driver, and three strangers, one of whom is now dead. About 4:39 in the afternoon Trutleman, who was standing by his back in front of the Burlington depot, was approached by two men, who said they wanted him to take "their friend" to the Immanuel hospital. He was very ill, they said, and Trutleman would have to help them lift him into the vehicle. Arrangements had been made at the hospital for his reception. The sick man was a wealthy grain buyer from Albton, Neb. After the invalid had been lifted into the back the two men who had negotiated for his transportation dropped out of sight and Trutleman drove away.

At the hospital Trutleman was surprised o learn that the arrival of his passenger had been wholly unexpected. No arrangements had been made for his reception. He was still further surprised to learn that the sick man had no money and was unable to pay his back bill.

The Metropolitan Hotel is one of he largest and most famous hotels that it would cure her.

"I bought and carried to her two the largest and most famous hotels of Washington, D.C., and its genial proprieter, Col. W. R. Teller, is one of the best know hotel men in America.

He says: I have used Dr. Greene's Nervura in my family and am well acquainted with its beneficial results and have been for a long time. In the case of nervous dyspepsia it has proved excellent to my knowledge. I have no hesitation in recommending the remedy to all, and grant permission to publish this letter Mr. W. W. Price, Head Clerk of the Metropolitan Hotel, states:

'I have found my long sustained mental labors were wearing upon me, and that after my cares for the day were ended my former refreshing sleep forsook me. I have suffered from insomnia for some time past Noticing the many famous men who were using and recommending . Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, I also resolved to try it. It gives me pleasure to say that I have found relief from its use, and I gladly recommend it."
Mrs. A. M. Lyons, Matron of the Metropolitan Hotel, says: "I have known of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy for six or eight years. My sister was troubled with rheumatism for three years without relief. She suffered greatly at the time. I had read much about Dr. Greene's Nervura so that I
